TOM PATRI, PGA PROFESSIONAL COLLABORATES WITH OSFLOW®

OSFLOW® is a world novelty in the Golf and Wellness market with its new US distribution office in North Naples, FL.

Tom Patri, One of Golf Magazines Top 100 Golf Instructors in America has been a teacher, coach, and mentor to the new player, the recreational player, as well as the tournament player, for over 30 years and 50,000+ lesson hours. He is now collaborating with Osflow USA Distribution LLC. The OSFLOW® is an oscillation wellness platform and has the potential to be a life changer, for golf, balance and flexibility. It relaxes muscles, removes muscle tensions and the oscillation platform centers the human skeleton in only a few minutes. OSFLOW® is a world novelty in the golf and wellness market with its new US distribution office in the golf capital of the world, Naples, FL.

"I have been using the OSFLOW® device daily for over 3 months now and have experienced substantial back pain relief and radically improved balance and flexibility," says Tom Patri. Tom goes on to say, "Your ability to balance yourself as well as your range of motion are vital cornerstones to golf performance!"

The OSFLOW® device helps you work on your balance and flexibility consistently and properly and will increase your range of motion, your power and ultimately... help you reduce your handicap.

"Perhaps just as importantly, the OSFLOW® oscillation platform will help you to reduce the occurrence of those nagging injuries that so many golfers must endure," says Dr. Sean M. Wells, DPT, OCS, ATC/L, CSCS, NSCA-CPT, Doctor of Physical Therapy at Naples Personal Training, and user of the OSFLOW® with his clients for more than 8 months.

"We will organize several high profile events in Golf & Country Clubs in the Naples area, where members can learn more about the benefits and experience this unique device first hand,” says Judith Rudolf info@osflowusa.com, importer for the OSFLOW®. On March 1st, Tom Patri, PGA Professional and OSFLOW® are inviting to a Golf Clinic, Balance and Flexibility at Hotel BellaSera, 221 Ninth Street South, Naples, FL 34102. If you would like for Tom Patri and OSFLOW® to come address your country club or organized group, feel free to contact Judith Rudolf at info@osflowusa.com.

Balance and flexibility are integral to a solid, controlled golf swing that can be honed to produce an accurate shot. Balance training helps you build control over your body and improves your swing. Flexibility is extremely important too, as it determines your maximum/minimum range of motion through your swing.

About OsflowUSA Distribution LLC:

OsflowUSA Distribution LLC, founded in 2013, as the sole importer of the OSFLOW® device. OSFLOW® is imported from Germany and is available all over Europe. Judith Rudolf, Swiss and owner of OsflowUSA Distribution LLC, located in North Naples, FL first encountered the device when her brother in law with Parkinson’s Disease was using it. She then learned more about the device, the multiple benefits and thought this will help many people here in Southwest Florida, including golfers. That was when she imported the first 10 devices into the US. After talking to some leading industry experts, the Florida Physical Therapists in Private Practice, FLPTPP endorsed the OSFLOW® device because of its functionality and positive benefits for its users. OsflowUSA Distribution LLC is working to build nationwide distribution over time and to create job opportunities here in Naples, FL.
